Estate Inventory
For
William W. Taylor
Newberry, South Carolina
28 February 1848

This is the inventory of the estate of William W. Taylor. It includes all except his real estate holdings. For his time, he was fairly affluent. The relative value of items is interesting, particularly his most high value items. The items were later sold and divided among his children and the child of his deceased son George.
